

Dare to be Different?

If you're planning for a wedding with a difference and particularly if your ideal honeymoon is playing in a wonderland of snow with roaring log fires and heartening mulled wine then look no further. Winter Weddings are glamorous, romantic and magical. Allow us at The Burlington Hotel to turn your wedding day into a winter extravaganza.

Free your imagination

Just picture yourself walking down the grand staircase wearing a beautiful white silk or velvet dress complete with white fur muff, towards our Radnor Suite where your husband to be awaits your arrival.

As you enter the room all heads turn to watch you walk down the aisle to stand beside your betrothed, followed by your bridesmaids and flower girls.

After the formal ceremony a beautiful crisp day, with fresh snow laying on the ground and clear blue skies above waits as you make your way out into the garden to have photos taken, surrounded by friends, family and huddled closely to your new husband.

As you make your way back into the comfort of the hotel, a fire burns brightly as our staff hand out warm winter Pimms, mulled wine and hot chocolate, to warm the hands of you and your guests whilst hot canapés are nibbled and laughter fills the air.

As the evening draws in and once the dinner has been served your evening reception truly begins.

The music starts, the evening guests arrive and you, the happy couple, move on to the floor to dance your first dance as the snow slowly begins to fall, laying a new blanket over your winter wonderland.

Atmosphere is everything

Remember that December is a very special month to get married in. Christmas is fast approaching, the decorations are up and will help to add a seasonal feel to your special day.

Should the weather not be good enough for outside photographs, imagine the pictures of you and your guests gathered around our giant Christmas tree.

Or how about bringing the New Year in with a real night To remember

Weddings on New Years Eve are also very special, and not surprisingly, after all, what better way to see in the New Year with all your friends and family around you on what has to be one of the most important days of your life.

Picture the scene, midnight strikes, the celebrations for the New Year begin, Auld Lang Syne is heralded and amidst the cheers and tears, the newly wed couple disappear into the night to begin their honeymoon.

So if you dare to be different book your winter wedding today and allow us at the Burlington to make your day truly magical!
